REGULATION FOR PROCESSING PERSONAL DATA IN FAMILY OR DOMESTIC ACTIVITIES

Dear Clients and Friends:

In the Third Supplement to Official Register No. 218 of February 4, 2026, Resolution SPDP-SPD-2026-0003-R was published, issuing the Regulation for the Processing of Personal Data in Family or Domestic Activities. Below are the most relevant aspects:

As a preliminary matter, the Organic Law on Personal Data Protection exempts natural persons from its application when using such data in family or domestic activities.

The Resolution establishes parameters to identify and limit the family or domestic scope for personal data processing purposes.

Data processed within the family or domestic scope cease to qualify as personal data if: (i) the processing serves commercial purposes; (ii) the data are disseminated to an indeterminate number of persons; or (iii) such processing results in a violation of data subjects' rights.

It is established that if the data processing activity exceeds the limits of the family or domestic scope, the provisions of the Organic Law on Personal Data Protection must be applied, and non-compliance will give rise to the corresponding administrative procedures.

We hope that you find this general information helpful. Please note that it is not intended to constitute legal advice. Should you have any specific inquiries, we would be pleased to provide further assistance.
