OBLIGATIONS TO BE FULFILLED IN MARCH 2026

Dear Clients and Friends:

Below you will find an overview of the main tax, corporate and labor obligations that must be fulfilled in March 2026:

Tax Obligations:

- Income Tax (Impuesto a la Renta - IR) for Natural Persons for the 2025 Fiscal Year:
- Natural persons must declare and pay their Income Tax in March, according to the ninth digit of their RUC (Registro Único de Contribuyentes - RUC). If the reporting date coincides with a weekend or holiday, it is postponed to the next business day. The Income Tax declaration for natural persons not required to keep accounting records must be made using Form 102A, available on the Internal Revenue Service (Servicio de Rentas Internas - SRI) website.
- Natural persons are not required to submit an Income Tax declaration when:
 - Their income did not exceed the taxable base for 2026 (US $12,081.00); or,
 - They are under a dependent relationship with a single employer. In this case, Form 107 becomes the taxpayer's declaration.
- Regardless of exemptions, individuals must file an IR declaration using Form 102A in the following cases:
 - There is a discrepancy between personal expense amounts and their projected expenses, necessitating a recalculation of personal expenses.
 - Despite being employed under a dependency relationship, the individual receives income from an additional activity, requiring a recalculation of income tax.
